"Do you really wish to know?" — Spoilers from the books and/or adaptations to follow!

Teleri Drouhard was the local spice merchant and guildmaster in Bremevoord. His son, Gaspard married Dalia, the daughter of Mestvin, a local ship's captain.

The day of the wedding banquet, his wife learned the famous Dandelion was in town and sent her husband out to ask the bard to play at their son's wedding alongside Essi Daven. Teleri initially offered Dandelion 20 gold, but the bard eventually negotiated up to 35, though it appeared later that Teleri would have been willing to pay even more.
